

Spahn Chills St. Louis on Sparkling 5-Hitter, 10-0

Aging Spahn Nets 17th; 'Feels Good'

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Warren Spahn, the Milwaukee Braves' old warhorse, apparently has found the Fountain of Youth. At the age of 39, he's just about the hottest pitcher in baseball.

Spahn registered his sixth straight victory and ninth in 10 decisions since the All-Star game break by blanking the St. Louis Cardinals 10-0 Tuesday night for the 17th shutout of his great career.

The stylish southpaw's five-hitter, coupled with the Braves' emergence from a prolonged batting slump, enabled Milwaukee to regain second place by a fraction of a percentage point. The Braves and Cards each trail first place Pittsburgh by 6 1/2 games.

While posting his 17th victory against seven setbacks, Spahn closed in on his 11th 20-game winning season. Only Cy Young, Christy Mathewson and Walter Johnson have won 20 in more seasons.

Braves Regain 2nd Place by One Lone Point

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves took off on a "make-or-break" road trip today. By the time they return to friendly County Stadium their fate in the National League pennant race probably will be decided.

The Braves headed for a doubleheader with the pesky Cubs in Chicago after regaining their batting eyes and belting the St. Louis Cardinals 10-0 Tuesday night behind the five-hit pitching of Warren Spahn.

17th Victory

The victory before a crowd of 24,808 at the Stadium enabled the Braves to break even in the two-game set and regain second place by a fraction of a percentage point over the Cards. However, Pittsburgh defeated Los Angeles and leads Milwaukee and St. Louis by 6 1/2 games.

While Spahn dazzled the Cards for his sixth straight triumph and his 17th as compared with seven Losses, the Braves erupted for 12 hits off three St. Louis pitchers.

The biggest blow was a three-run homer by Hank Aaron, his 34th, which capped the scoring in the eighth inning.

Aaron, Adcock Star

Aaron and Joe Adcock each drove in four runs. Aaron drove in his first run with a harsh infield single in a four-run seventh.

Adcock, who hadn't driven in a run since Aug. 17, collected two RBI's with a two-out bases-loaded single in the first inning off starter Ernie Broglio. He walked in a similar bases-jammed situation to force in another run in the third.

Broglio settled down after that, but the Braves went to work after he left for a pinchhitter in the seventh.

Rapped Kline

Billy Bruton's second of three singles touched off the attack on Rennie Kline. He was sacrificed to second and Eddie Mathews walked.

Aaron then singled off the pitcher and when the ball eluded the shortstop Bruton came all the way around. Wes Covington singled for another tally and Adcock then laid down a squeeze bunt scoring Mathews. Johnny Logan's hit to right accounted for the fourth tally of the inning.

A single by Bruton and a semi-intentional walk to Mathews preceded Aaron's blast in the eighth. The homer was a tremendous drive into the bleachers in left center for his third hit of the night.

Burdette, Willey Today

The Braves planned to send fidgety Lew Burdette (15-8) and hard-luck Carl Willey (5-7) against the Cubs in the twinned today. Chicago planned to counter with Dick Ellsworth (16-10) and Bob Anderson (7-8).

After the series finale in Chicago, the Braves travel to Cincinnati for three games and then to

Second Half Sox Outdueled Nats, 11-10, in Conso Title To Engineers

Link Hafernann hurried the Engineers to the second-half championship in the Consolidated Softball league Tuesday evening on a 3-hit, 4-3 triumph over Consowald.

The Engineers picked up their sixth straight decision and qualified as the team to play the first-half champion Electricians for the 1966 league crown. That game has not yet been scheduled.

The Engineers grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first two innings, then fell behind when Consowald staged a two-run rally in the sixth, after scoring once in the fourth. A two-run sixth inning provided the winning margin for the Engineers.

Muclenbelt and Streb each honored for the winners, while Kroenke hit one for the losers. Perzy was the losing pitcher.

duel between the White Sox' Frank Baumann and the Senators' Pedro Ramos. Washington led 1-0 at the end of seven.

Chicago took a 2-1 lead in the eighth in two walks and singles by pinch-hitter Ted Kluszewski, Roy Sievers and Minnie Miñoso. Washington bounced back with four runs in its half, three coming on Jim Lemon's 31st home run.

Minoso's 3-Run Hit

The White Sox roared back with five runs in the ninth, Miñoso's three-run homer giving them a 7-5 lead. Washington tied it on Billy Gardner's two-run blow. In the 10th, Nellie Fox doubled home two runs and Gardner's wild throw gave Chicago two more for an 11-7 lead. The Senators bounced back with three runs on a double by Bob Allison, a triple by pinch-hitter Julio Becquer and a home run by Lenzie Green.

Boston's Pete Runnels went on a batting rampage with nine hits. Boston Manager Mike Higgins also went wild, charging out to the mound to square off with Jim Bunning after the Tiger pitcher had beaned Don Buddin with a pitch.

In New York, a torrential rain and flash floods kept many would-be Yankee Stadium customers home, but those who made it saw the Yankees rally in the ninth to defeat Kansas City 3-2 and maintain their 1 1/2 game lead over Baltimore.

Orioles Bob Tribe

Only in Baltimore, there was no untoward incident as the Orioles whipped the Indians 4-1.

In the National League, Pittsburgh defeated Los Angeles 5-2, Milwaukee shut out St. Louis 10-0, San Francisco nipped Philadelphia 2-1 and Chicago shaded Cincinnati 5-4.

For seven innings in Washington, the fans saw a tight pitching

Pittsburgh for three vital meetings.

CRANBERRY GOOD LUCK CHARM—Charlie Dressen, left, Milwaukee Braves manager, and his two winning pitchers, Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette, pow-wow on the mound at County Stadium with Chief Thunderbird of Wisconsin Dells. Dressen and his ac hurlers inspected the chief's bear claw necklace while the Winnebago Indian and Wisconsin cranberry growers were at the Stadium to arrange for the Wisconsin Cranberry Night to be held there Sept. 5. The good luck charm worked for Warren because he held the Indian sign on the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday night. Spahn pocketed his 17th victory on the basis of a five-hit shutout, which the Braves won 10-0. The big Cranberry Night next Thursday will be a salute to Wisconsin cranberries, one of Wisconsin's oldest and most important food products. A program, complete with pre-game ceremonies and elaborate fireworks display, is planned. Bus package plan tickets are available at the J. E. Daly Drug & Jewelry store in Wisconsin Rapids. The San Francisco Giants are the Braves opponents that night.

Win Margin Over Bears No Indication of Pack Strength

GREEN BAY (AP) — Coach Vince Lombardi continued to tell his Green Bay Packers today that they aren't as good as the score they ran up against the Chicago Bears last Saturday would indicate. The Packers beat the Bears in an exhibition football game 35-7.

The Bears stopped themselves, Lombardi said, adding that the Packers can't expect to have that happen very often when they meet other National Football League teams this year.

The Packers resumed training Tuesday in preparation for their next exhibition game to be played here on Monday, Labor Day with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Lombardi warned his men that the Cardinals will be tough and that the Packers can't expect to get the breaks like they did against the Bears. The Cardinals beat the champion Baltimore Colts 31-21 in an exhibition game last week.

The Packer coach hopes to sharpen his running attack before the next game. He tried two new men as offensive backs Tuesday, using Bob Jarus, a fullback from Purdue and Don Brown, a former Cardinal halfback, with his first strong offensive unit. Both are good runners.

The Packers plan to make the Labor Day game a "Family Day" event, with children under 12 being admitted for 50 cents. About 50 autographed footballs will be given to the youngsters.

Shymanski Is Re-elected APS Director

Frank Shymanski, E. Saratoga, was elected to his seventh term as director of the American Pheasant Society when the organization held its annual convention in Hamilton, Ont. last weekend.

Shymanski also participated in the convention program, speaking at one session on "How I Raise Grouse."

The four-day convention was highlighted by a scenic tour of the city of Hamilton on the final day after several lectures on wildlife. It was staged in conjunction with the Hamilton Exposition which drew 302,500 in attendance.

Citation was the last horse to win the Triple Crown of racing—the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and the Belmont Stakes. He did it in 1935.

Badger Gridders, Face Cameras

MADISON (AP)—The new faces in Wisconsin's 1966 football picture will pose for newspaper and television photographers today at Camp Randall Stadium.

About 70 prospects—only nine of them lettermen from last year's Big Ten championship team—are expected to be on hand for the preview to Thursday's official start of practice sessions.

Coach Bill Bruhn, starting his fifth season as Badger headman, has indicated he'll rely on a three-platoon system to get the most from a sophomore-studded crop of talent.

Under the system, Bruhn's starting eleven would see service on both offense and defense and second and third team members would operate as units in their respective specialties.

Fundamentals will occupy the squads at least the first three days. Next week, Bruhn has two-hour practice sessions scheduled twice daily.

World Bantam Champ Beccera Koyed in 8th

JUAREZ, Mexico (AP)—Eloy Sanchez of Juanaquato, Mexico, knocked out World Bantamweight Champion Jose Beccera in the eighth round of a non-title bout Tuesday night while 18,900 fans screamed.

The knockout came at 2:51 of the eighth round after a series of lefts and rights to the head. The champion dropped on his back and rolled over once during the count.

The National League has passed the 10 million mark in attendance twice, in 1947 and 1953.

Jacob's Well & the Beam Family

In 1795 Jacob Beam dug his well in Kentucky and created Beam Bourbon... still being made here today by the 5th and 6th generations of the Beam family

Taste Beam and you'll know how really good a bourbon can be. But only the Beams know how to make it taste so good.

In 1795 Jacob Beam dug his well and began making his very special kind of Kentucky bourbon under a formula that has remained within the Beam family for six generations. Today the 5th & 6th generation Beams, using Jacob's original formula including the precise measures of grain, sweet jug yeast, and his exacting ritual of hilltop aging, bring you a bourbon worthy of your Trust.

That's why today, as for 165 years—only Beam tastes like Beam—only Beam tastes so good.

Worthy Of Your Trust
