Braves' Directors Favor Move To Atlanta

Milwaukee Citizens Oppose Shift; National League Owners' Opinion Expected

NEW YORK (AP) — National League owners will meet today to consider the transfer of the Milwaukee Braves to Atlanta, and no action will be taken at the meeting, it was said last night.

The Braves board of directors last night gave the go-ahead for the move. The move, the second in four years, was the recommendation of the board.

Braves' President Wes Westrum said the team's financial losses were the reason for the move.

The Braves have been in Milwaukee for 60 years, and the move to Atlanta will be effective next season.

Yank Olympic Lead Chopped By Russia

TOBY (AP) — The Greeks, who are ranked as the best team in the world, were not satisfied with their 3-0 lead after the first period.

The Americans scored two goals in the second period to tie the game and then added another in the third period to win.

Despite the loss, the Greek team was pleased with its performance.

'Bushville' Interest Declined After '57

ATLANTA (AP) — Atlanta, from the standpoint of the National League owners, the fans are the reason for the move to Atlanta.

The move, the second in four years, was the recommendation of the board.

The Braves have been in Milwaukee for 60 years, and the move to Atlanta will be effective next season.

Inconsistency Hurts Giants

Cleveland (AP) — "The big one's coming, and we're not ready to go," said the Giants.

The American League's leading team has been inconsistent lately.

Perfectionist Woody Hayes Not Satisfied

COLUMBUS — Woody Hayes, the nation's top coach, isn't satisfied with his team's performance.

Hayes has been known for his perfectionist ways, but he said his team needs to improve.

Braves Get Call

NEW YORK (AP) — The team's decision to move to Atlanta was a surprise to the fans.

The move, the second in four years, was the recommendation of the board.

The Braves have been in Milwaukee for 60 years, and the move to Atlanta will be effective next season.

Ladies Golf Tourney Opens

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The Lockheed Open Golf Tournament is underway in Phoenix.

The tournament, one of the major events in the season, is being played on the new course.

Koufax, Chance Top AP All-Star Team

The two most outstanding pitchers in baseball were named to the American League All-Star team.

Koufax and Chance were both dominant on the mound.

Ex-Hero Terry Swaps Hitting for Pitching

Cleveland — Terry, who has been a hitting sensation in recent years, has switched to pitching.

Terry has been one of the top hitters in baseball, but he said he wants to try pitching.

GETS CALL

Amelia Earhart's son, Terry O'Kiel, is being called up from the minor leagues today.

The young pitcher has been impressive in his brief time in the majors.

GEORGE HARRISON

GETS CALL

The Beatles, who are on tour in the United States, have been given permission to keep their equipment in the country.

The band, which is made up of John, Paul, George, and Ringo, is scheduled to play in several cities this week.

GETS CALL

The Orioles, who are in the process of signing a new pitcher, have called up a young left-hander from the minors.

The pitcher, who has a good fastball, is expected to help out in the bullpen.